TPS is a small and friendly club and welcomes new or experienced photographers. There is a wide range of abilities within our membership, from beginners to professionals. Our members say that their photography improves significantly with the advice and feedback they receive on their pictures during the club evenings and that they then personally become more satisfied with the photographs that they are producing.

For further information, please contact the club Secretary Steve Elms on 01883 349646 or have a look at our website at www.tandridgephotographicsociety.org.uk.
